

About John H. Tokpah

Mr. John H. Tokpah serves as the Chief Administrative Officer of the National Road Fund of Liberia, bringing a strong educational background that includes an MBA in Banking and Finance from Cuttington University and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the African Methodist Episcopal University.

He has held various significant positions throughout his career, including his recent role as Compliance Officer at the National Road Fund from April 2022 to April 2023, where he was responsible for ensuring adherence to regulatory standards and overseeing compliance processes. Prior to that, he worked as an accountant at the National Transit Authority in 2018, managing critical financial operations and reporting duties.

Additionally, he served as project accountant at FRAMP/USAID from 2016 to 2018, he further demonstrated his expertise by ensuring financial accountability and transparency for various projects. Also, he served as a Finance Associate at LTP/USAID from July 2015 to July 2016, assisting in financial management and reporting tasks. Earlier in his career, he worked as an accountant at Buchanan Renewables from April 2012 to October 2015, where he managed financial records and supported budgeting processes, and at ECO-Bank from 2009 to 2010, providing essential accounting services. Throughout his career, Hon. Tokpah has demonstrated a strong commitment to financial integrity and effective resource management, which are crucial to advancing Liberia's road infrastructure development.